Man was moving yesterday (in connection with the immigration from Europe) to West Virginia, however, she is too late to get a passport to attract people who can find more congenial surroundings in other States.

Good Many People Stuck—How It May Turn Out.
A Cleveland dispatch this morning says that one million six hundred and fifty thousand tons of Lake Superior ore have been marketed at that and other Lake ports for delivery to the furnaces and iron works this season, and fifty odd thousand tons additional to points above Lake Erie. This means that 1,700,000 tons of iron ore have been sold at prices above the rates for iron to-day, and at least three to five dollars above what the same ore could be sold for to-day.

The dispatch affords no light on the question whether these sales will stick or not. If they do, it is evident that a great many iron manufacturers will be greatly benefited. It is not likely that the price of iron will fall, but it is possible that it will. The price of iron is now at a high level, and it is not likely that it will fall. The price of iron is now at a high level, and it is not likely that it will fall.

Republican Conventions Yesterday.
The State of Kentucky has given 90,000 Democratic majority. It is always good for 30,000 to 50,000 for that party. It is a Republican majority in Kentucky. It is a Republican majority in Kentucky. It is a Republican majority in Kentucky.

At this writing it is not certain that these two States (Kentucky and Missouri) will be sold for Gen. Grant at Chicago. Apprehensions, however, are that they may be. While their votes will give him considerable support, they will not put him within a good many votes of a nomination. It is still "far cry to Lucknow." Every day brings pause to the third term movement at the North, and it may, for there are unmistakable signs that the nomination of Gen. Grant will jeopardize to the utmost the chances of Republican success at the North—not only in New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, but in Ohio and "except these abide in the ship '73 cannot be saved."

A Show for Whittaker Demanded.
WASHINGTON, April 13.—There is a general feeling of dissatisfaction here over the management of the Whittaker case at West Point. This is by no means confined to Republicans, but some very extreme Democrats express themselves in very severe terms on the subject. Senator Voorhees is a good example of this class.

The feeling with respect to Whittaker is fast taking shape in the Senate in favor of making no appropriation for West Point until it becomes perfectly apparent that the colored cadet has been treated with fairness. The military academy bill, which is now in conference committee, and several Republican and Democratic Senators have agreed among themselves that nothing shall be done with it until the Whittaker case is fully understood by the Senate, and nothing then if it shall not come from the committee. It is not likely that a just and honorable course has been pursued throughout in this matter by the authorities of the academy. Senator Bruce, who is to be absent for a short time, has the promise of the military members of the committee that no action shall be taken on the military academy bill until his return. The Democrats have also promised to support him in withholding the appropriations in case Whittaker does not receive fair treatment.

A New Departure Over in Belmont.
St. Clairsville, Ohio.
The Republican primary meetings to select delegates to a county convention to meet in St. Clairsville, on Saturday, April 15th, are called to meet in the several townships, precincts and wards of the county, on next Wednesday, the 21st, between the hours of three and five o'clock p. m.

So far as Belmont county is concerned it is an unusual thing to call a delegate convention for the purpose of selecting delegates to the State Convention, but the matter has seemed it advisable that this course be taken, and it only remains for the Republicans of the county to turn out in force, on Wednesday, and send delegates of the solid representative men of the county to the county convention.

The Assurance of the Pennsylvania Democrats

In Dictating to the Party—General Ewing's Speech on the Army Bill—Minnesota's Presidential Preference—Exodus Inquiry—General News.

Popular, but Indifferent.
WASHINGTON, April 14.
Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer.
The speech of Ewing, of Ohio, pleases his Democratic brethren more as they read and talk it over. Ewing makes a good speech, but he has a bad delivery, by reason of which his efforts read better than they sound. Ewing is popular in Congress on both sides, and if he had made an effort or would make an effort he might become the Democratic leader of the House. He came into the Fortieth Congress with an excellent opportunity to place himself at the head of his party here, but his ambition was not so much for leadership of the House as for the Presidency which he hoped to reach through the gubernatorial mansion of Ohio. All Ohio politicians have that mania to a greater or less degree. They are taught to regard Ohio as the pivot State, and it is conceded that Ohio produces more good material for Congress than any other State in the Union, and they have the Presidential madness very strong. McMahon is ambitious for the leadership of his party in the House, but he is too cold and selfish in character to achieve it. Ewing has the personal magnetism and popularity required for a leader, but he is too indolent to try for it or indifferent towards his honors. He does not value his seat in Congress, but keeps it because he fears a Republican would get it if he should resign. He is well off in a worldly way, having made half a million in stocks it is reported within the last half year.

Check of Pennsylvania Democrats.
WASHINGTON, April 13.
Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer.
Discussing the political situation last evening, and particularly the news from Louisiana and Pennsylvania, a Virginia Democrat of intelligence and position said that Tilden could never carry Virginia. Being asked what Democrat could carry the State he answered: "Any one except Tilden. I would throw Wallace and Randall into hell rather than see either of them get control of the National Convention by reason of controlling the Pennsylvania delegation. What has Pennsylvania to do with the Democratic ticket anyhow? Pennsylvania doesn't give a Democratic vote for the Democratic candidate, nor has it done so for twenty-four years, but the Pennsylvania Democrats want to have all the votes of the nomination. If it was left to New York, Indiana, Connecticut, New Jersey, or any other State that is a factor in the electoral vote for the Democratic candidate, I would not say a word against it. Tilden is a candidate, and Pennsylvania coming into the convention to control the nomination is like a man going into a firm with nothing but Confederate money for his share of the capital, and then dictating how the business shall be conducted. He is doing the Democratic party no good."

The Minnesota Men.
WASHINGTON, April 14.
Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer.
Senator McMillan, of Minnesota, says that he thinks the Republicans of his State are almost equally divided between Grant and Blaine, with a few for Sherman. As to the three most prominent candidates last fall, he thinks the sentiment was almost unanimously for Grant, but now there is a strong feeling for Blaine. There is another element in Minnesota, however, which may affect the vote of that State in the Chicago Convention, and that is the Minnesota delegation. Minnesota is a candidate, and it is not likely that a just and honorable course has been pursued throughout in this matter by the authorities of the academy. Senator Bruce, who is to be absent for a short time, has the promise of the military members of the committee that no action shall be taken on the military academy bill until his return. THE WEST POINT OUTRAGE.

A Scene Between U. S. District Attorney Townsend and Recorder Sears—Progress of the Examination.

West Point, April 14.—The people attending the inquiry into the assault upon Whittaker, were treated to a scene to-day. Ex-Congressman Martin I. Townsend, U. S. District Attorney for Northern New York, entered the room, at a moment, then glancing about, stepped to the side of Recorder Sears, who was asking a witness a question. Townsend leaned over and said something not clearly heard at the press table. Townsend replied in a distinct voice, and looking at the Recorder: "I am in the habit of being treated like a gentleman, sir." Recorder Sears, addressing the court, said in substance: "The gentleman was interfering with the examination, and charges me with treating him uncivilly."

Townsend—"I came here this morning by the direction of the Secretary of War, from whom I received a telegram instructing me to come. I have only just arrived, and merely asked the privilege of a conference for a moment with this gentleman, the Recorder."

President of the Court—I suppose, sir, the Recorder thought you were one of the audience and had no authority to interfere. Townsend—I am not one of the audience; I came here against my wish; all I did that was uncivil was to touch the Recorder's arm to show him a paper, and at that time the court was in session. I am not a member of the court, and I am not a member of the audience. I am not a member of the court, and I am not a member of the audience. I am not a member of the court, and I am not a member of the audience.

Gen. Schofield here entered the room and recognizing Townsend the two shook hands and left the building. Returning shortly Townsend watched closely all the testimony, asking the witnesses many questions. Townsend's examination of Alexander was referred in the main to the probable quantity of blood that Whittaker lost. Townsend saying about one ounce and a half or four table-spoons. He did not think that the turning of an eye ball could be considered as a symptom of shamming.

Dr. Burnett testified that his first reason for suspecting Whittaker for shamming was that he kept his eye ball turned up. Witness said the sleep coming after the loss of an ounce and a half of blood would be a troubled, nervous sleep, and then there appears to be any chance claim he was hit on the head and face, if he knew that afterwards no marks would show.

Whittaker told witness that he had no difficulty recalling, and he says he been nonplussed. He referred to the eye ball, Dr. Lippincott, assistant post surgeon, testified that the wound on Whittaker's forehead was a permanent disfigurement. Dr. L. made one statement in his testimony, which Townsend deems highly important, that twelve hours after Whittaker was found there were plain indentures on his wrists and ankles, where he had been tied. Townsend claims that this shows that he had been tied very tightly, and for a long time.

TILDEN'S TACTICS.
Only Feeling Public Opinion on the Subject.
PHILADELPHIA, April 14.—A Washington special to the evening Bulletin says: A Democrat of prominence, one who has held a high position in the councils of his party, informed your correspondent to-day that Tilden has written a letter to be read at the New York Democratic Convention at Syracuse, declining to be a candidate before the Cincinnati Convention, and withdrawing his name. The reason assigned for this course is the condition of his health. This same gentleman says that Tilden prepared the letter two months ago withdrawing, but the intervention of personal friends prevented it from being made public.

THE LAKE SUPERIOR IRON MINES.
The Ore Output—Better Times Expected Soon.
CLEVELAND, April 14.—Enquiry among men heavily interested in Lake Superior iron mines, shows the season's contracts call for 1,650,000 tons of ore from that region. Four hundred and fifty thousand tons will go to Lake Michigan ports and most of the balance comes to Cleveland and vicinity. The Cleveland Rolling Mill Company has contracts for rails and other manufactures which will require many months to fill. Other extensive works are also a proportionately busy and the report will not be materially affected by the present agitation of the iron market. Iron manufacturers and ore dealers here are looking for a reaction in the market and better prices, which they expect will soon be established on a natural and healthy basis, where they will remain without much fluctuation for one or two years.

THREE CONVENTIONS.

Two Instruct for Grant and One for Blaine.

The Missouri and Kentucky Republicans Instruct Delegates to Chicago to Vote as a Unit for the "God of Battles"—Iowa Solid for the "Knight of the Shining Lance."

Blaine Carries the Delegation to Chicago.
DES MOINES, Ia., April 14.—The Republican State Convention assembled at 11 o'clock. Eight hundred and seventy-eight delegates were present, every county in the State being represented. Waldo M. Potter, of Clinton, was made temporary chairman. He alluded to all the candidates for President—Edmunds, Washburne, Sherman, Grant and Blaine. The names of all were cheered as they were mentioned. Grant's very hearty, and when Blaine was reached the Convention rose to its feet and repeated its cheers three times, the cheering lasting for a minute or two.

All the delegates had met before the assembling of the State Convention in district caucuses. Each caucus selected two names to present to the State Convention for delegates to Chicago.

The Blaine men carried every district, and selected none but pronounced Blaine men. The only contests were in the first and second districts, but a decided Blaine majority was given in each of these. The names of the delegates to Chicago selected were as follows:
First district—Burrell, of Washington, Hurley, of Wapello.
Second district—Thompson, of Scott, Carr, of Cedar.
Third district—Sturges, of Fayette, Bassett, of Delaware.
Fourth district—Haines, of Poweshick, Upton, of Lincoln.
Fifth district—Greenbe, of Marion, Woodin, of Keokuk.
Sixth district—Runnels, of Polk, McKee, of Warren.
Seventh district—Lewallen, of Page, Sharpe, of Coos.
Eighth district—Lucas, of Franklin, Hartness, of Humboldt.
Ninth district—Lucas, of Franklin, Hartness, of Humboldt.
Adjourned to 2 o'clock.

The Convention reassembled at 2 p. m., when John W. Chapman, a pronounced Grant man, was made Chairman, as an indication of party harmony, and made a delicious speech as a Grant man presiding over a Blaine Convention. Eight hundred and seventy-eight delegates were reported present.

The Committee on Resolutions, headed by ex-Senator Harlan, reported a resolution endorsing Blaine as the choice of Iowa, and instructing the delegation to Chicago to vote for him as a unit and use all honorable means for his nomination. The resolution was adopted by five to one.

This result was ordered telegraphed to Massachusetts. The names sent to the forenoon dispatch were ratified by the convention as the delegates to Chicago, and Huf and Butler were added to represent the fourth district. The convention then voted on delegates at large; J. J. Clarkson, of Des Moines, S. M. Clark, of Keokuk, D. D. Henderson, of Dubuque, and J. W. Perkins, of Sioux City, the Blaine delegates receiving 723 votes against 1524 votes for Grant delegates. The utmost harmony prevailed.

THE KENTUCKY REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.
Grant Gorges the Entire Delegation.
LOUISVILLE, April 14.—The Republican State Convention was called to order by George Denny, jr., Chairman State Committee. The call of the counties showed the representation to be larger than usual. John W. Lewis, of Washington, was elected temporary chairman over John J. Landrum, of Gallatin county, the vote standing 800 to 600—the former shows Grants strength in the State. The Trouble Between the Turkish Authorities

And the U. S. Consul at Constantinople—The Execution of Otero, the Spanish Regicide—Status of Affairs Between Russia and China.

CONFLICT BETWEEN THE U. S. CONSUL AND THE TURKISH AUTHORITIES.
LONDON, April 14.—A letter from Constantinople dated April 5th, gives the following particulars of a conflict of jurisdiction between the United States Consul General and the Ottoman authorities, growing out of the arrest of the American citizen for murder, an account of which was telegraphed on the 10th inst. A case has come recently before the American Consul which involves a few very important questions of international right, and establishes the privileges and position for American citizens. A treaty between the United States and Turkey stipulates that any American citizen having committed a penal offense must be delivered to the American Consul at the place of judgment. This is not the case with any other foreigners, who, if charged with a criminal offense, would be tried by an Ottoman judge, although his case would be watched by the diplomat of his consulate.

A month ago an American citizen, established in business at Constantinople, killed an Ottoman subject accidentally. He surrendered himself to the American Consul, after having remained hidden a few days. In the meantime the Turkish police seized everything in his warehouse in Galata, without having asked the assistance of the American diplomat. The accused is an important arm of the minister of police forced a box of arms open and appropriated several revolvers, which were followed by other officials. Consul General Heap, who is also charge d'affaires, was informed of the charge against the American. After this charge and on the day previous to his surrender, the Ottoman authorities, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, that the domicile of an American citizen had been violated and a robbery committed by police officials.

On the surrender of the homicide, Heap informed the Minister of Police of the fact, stating that according to the stipulations between the United States and Turkey he would himself try the prisoner. The Minister of Police has not appeared at the trial, and the Ottoman authorities, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, that the domicile of an American citizen had been violated and a robbery committed by police officials.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

MOUNDSVILLE.

The New M. E. Church—Court Matters—Improvements—Local Notes and Personal Mention.

MOUNDSVILLE, April 14.
Editors Intelligencer:
The audience room of the new M. E. church building was occupied for the first time on last Sunday morning. It is very nicely furnished, and will compare very favorably with any church in the State. The building was commenced about one year ago under the most unfavorable circumstances. The most sanguine friends of the enterprise did not dare anticipate that in so short a time all could have a church edifice, and they did not dare anticipate that we would ever have such a model building as we now have. But all went to work with a will, and we now see the fruits of our labor. Much praise is due to the ladies of the congregation for the noble part they have borne in the work. The sewing society furnished the house with carpets, pulpit chairs, chandeliers, etc., while those having charge of the memorial quilt have taken upon themselves to pay for the pews. The trustees have all done nobly, and were it not for the extreme modesty of some of them I would say that certain ones have done more than well. The church will not be dedicated until some time in June, when it is expected that Bishop Simpson will officiate.

Our County Court is now in session, and business is being dispatched with as much rapidity as possible under the circumstances. It is expected that the docket will be cleared during the week. The attendance at court is small, as all the farmers except those forced to be present are at home hard at work. It is rather amusing to see the plans taken by the jurors to stay on the farm, and avoid coming to court. It is expected that the docket will be cleared during the week.
